Junior Play

Using the girls' gym as a makeshift theater, the Junior Class presented a two-day run of the three-act comedy about teen-agers, "We Shook the Family Tree," December 9 and 10. The play was under the direction of Mr. Robert Lawrence.

"Where is he? Just let me get hold of him," shouts Carl Lindstrom (Bobby) as Robbie Rhodes, Beverly Bomar, Carol Hughes, and Marcelene Woods look startled and bewildered.

"You don't mean you? You're my secret admirer?" Stephanie Adams (Hildegard) asks Howard Cornell (Freddie). Carol Hughes, Beverly Bomar, Carl Lindstrom, and Karl Lanier look on.

"It's all Hildegard's fault!" complain Karl Lanier (Jimmy) and Carol Hughes (Jill). Carl Lindstrom, Beverly Bomar, Marcelene Woods, Robbie Rhodes, Sharon Hicks, and Nancy Kraushaar appear to agree and disagree.

"The marriage license bureau closes at four." The Senator checks the time as everyone looks on.

"You are now in the hands of the world's most efficient organization," says General Biddle to John as Mrs. McKinley, Senator McKinley, Mary, and Mable look on.

League Games

Captained by Jack Hart and Marvin Powell, Garden Grove High's 1954 championship football team established one of the best records in Argonaut history. In their last Orange League season, the Argonauts posted a clean record of five straight victories in winning the league title. Big Reggie Attix was the first Argonaut ever to make the first string CIF selections. On the second squad Jack Hart was awarded a backfield position. Garden Grove dominated the All-Orange League selections and lost to Chula Vista 19-13 in the SCIF small school semi-finals. Jack Hart was nominated to play in the Fourth Annual Shrine Football Game at the Los Angeles Coliseum in July. This is the first time an Argonaut has been so honored.

Gilbert Dear and Hal Klein's "B" football team was unsuccessful in defending the Orange League title they held last year but placed second in a close pennant race. Captain-quarterback Eddie Rice led the Argos to five victories in an eight-game schedule, with their only league loss being to Laguna Beach 61-0. The "B's" closed the season with a 47-13 victory over Brea-Olinda.

Bouncing back after a dismal 1953-54 season, the varsity Argonauts copped second place in this year's tight Orange League and went into the CIF play-offs, advancing to the quarter finals before being dropped by Citrus.

Led by All-Orange League guard Ron Calliham, who paced the Argonauts in scoring with 210 points for an average of 17.5 per game, the starting line-up consisted of two seniors and three juniors. The climax of the season probably came during the first Laguna game, which Laguna won 46-44 in two overtimes. Coach Bivin termed the team "the most successful in the past four years."

Coach William Slingsby

Story-book finishes sparked the "C" basketball team to an undefeated season and the Orange League Championship. Led by the five stalwarts pictured below, the "C's" gave spectators some breath-taking moments: Jim Semon's winning the Valencia game with his twenty-foot, one-hand push shot with two seconds left in the game, and Benny Gomez winning the Tustin game by intercepting a pass and dribbling the length of the court for a lay-in with 15 seconds left. Robert Gamboni led the team in individual scoring with a ten-point average and Mike Wilkins had the highest game total, 14 points against Brea. Front, l. to r.: Bill Yoshioka, Mike Doyle, Mike Wilkins, Benny Gomez, Mike Wenetta, John McKay, Jim Semon. Captain Kenny Nixon
Most Valuable Player

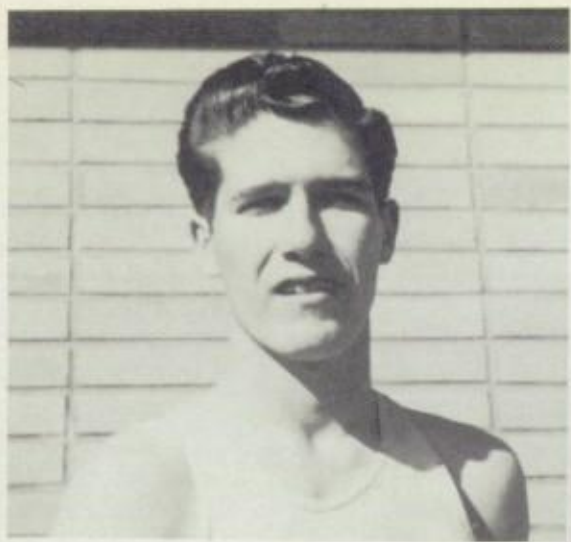

This year's defending Orange League Champions, led by lettermen Kenny Nixon and Robert Agonia, certainly proved the important position that "desire" and "will to win" play in athletics. Handicapped by their lack of height, yet superb in their ability to come from behind, they finished the 1954-1955 basketball season with a one point victory over Tustin and for the second consecutive year remained unbeaten in Orange League play. "D" champions and bronze basketball winners are (front, l. to r.) Robert Yoshioka, Richard True, Ken Nixon, Bob Agonia, Coach William Slingsby, (second row) Buddy Hicks, Bob Owen, Ted Just, Joe Takahashi.
